Too much stuff at once, you know? It's always the things you think you can do without thinking that screw you up.

Anyway, I figured... we'd put all this stuff in one place. So anybody looking could find it easily.

Anybody, or somebody. As in a specific somebody. Yes.

This is a nice thing to do.

So don't go buying it for yourself.

...

I might even let you borrow it sometimes. That is, if I were to happen to have one.

Birthday, birthday, who's got the birthday?

Oh, she's not so bad. That space alien in the cape has turned her head, is all.

When I decided to be born in February, I must not have realized I'd own a motorcycle. Winter storms play hell with...

Is this conversation grounds for workplace harassment? Not my half of it, of course.

As are you.

(And my goodness, was it ever hard to keep myself from posting some sort of rabbit Peep-themed picture here....although I guess "mentioning" that fact kind of negates the whole "restrained myself" thing, I guess.)

Now, are the armies of Peep bunnies and of the Peep chickies allies or rivals?
I'm sort of seeing this as an Army vs. Navy thing...though a battle of opposing Peep armies would be a fearsome (and sticky) thing to behold.

Thanks for pulling this together, Wabbit. Here's my contribution, with a tag to saeba.

I've got to admit that Chaz's disappearance is scary. After all, Federal law enforcement isn't exactly the safest job in the universe. I never knew my grandfather, a deputy US marshal in the Tucson office, because he was killed in the line of duty before I was born. Chaz'd probably flip out if I said this to his face ... but I'm praying that he's okay, because it's too damn easy to imagine that he's not.

Meanwhile, erik not erik? Do good things for our Wabbit, yhear? And Wabbit? Let him (and the Girl) do good things for you. You deserve them.
